Illuminate SF Festival of Light kicks off in San Francisco

Now in its sixth year, "Illuminate SF Festival of Light" celebrates 37 dramatic, eco-friendly light art installations located throughout San Francisco.

Located in 17 different neighborhoods, the works are accessible by public transport and many are free for all to view. From Thanksgiving 2018 through New Year's Day 2019, art lovers are invited to embrace the power of light and tour San Francisco's art installations by a diverse range of 30 local and world renowned light artists.
